Program Directors Report:

A reminder to keep collecting that loose change for our “Pennies for Heaven” campaign. We will be collecting them in April to turn in at our State convention. Also I am planning to do a walk for pledges for Special Olympics. The walk will take place in Coquitlam starting at All Saints Parish. The walk is approximately 4 -5 kms (to be confirmed) and take a route around Como Lake back to All Saints. Pledge forms will be made available along with maps of the course the date will be March 17th this year. It will be open to all councils in our district and is a fairly easy walk. The walk is to commemorate the Knights of Columbus Founders Day and show support for a very worthy cause. We encourage everyone to take part at very least by pledging walkers. More info via emails mid-February, contact Bruce McLean at bbmclean@telus.net

Charity Appeal Report:

Well Brothers, with the help of many we have survived another Charity Appeal campaign. The final count is complete and all books are in except for one missing (a record I think). The loss of 2 weeks of mall sales is reflected in our number of books sold, that total being 457. Many thanks to all who helped out selling in the malls, at the Church and on their own. This year’s top seller (no surprise) is Brother Bruce with 30 books sold. Special mention to Knights who sold 3 books or over, Jacob Rossi (7), Vince Maddolozzo (6), Paul Rossi (5), Alain Custeau (3), and Pat Krump (3). I also especially thank GK Michael for all his work with the mall sales and the mall leaders.
